It's my pleasure to provide a recommendation for Roni and Lee Amitai. They are fabulous realtors. I first met Roni in 2012 when we purchased our first home and quickly learned to respect and trust her acumen as a realtor. Then, we hired both Roni and Lee (now known as the Amitai team) in 2018 when we sold that home.

As soon as you meet them you recognize that they have a deep commitment to helping people to buy or sell their home with as positive an experience as possible. Lee and Roni are extremely knowledgeable about local neighborhoods and market trends, and they share a talent for knowing how to make the most of market conditions. They understand that building relationships is at the heart of every customer-realtor relationship.

Together, this team was flawless in helping us to understand their process for selling a home above asking price and in a relatively short amount of time. And that's what happened in our situation. Our home was listed for $899,000 and sold for $151,000 above asking price after only two open houses! We heeded their advice and achieved the highest sale price of any home in the neighborhood in a matter of weeks.

I have no hesitation in using the Amitai Team's services in the future and highly recommend them to anyone looking for realtors they can trust, especially in the Culver City area.
